Be Narrowed.

President Rowe, who has already served two years, has declared that he will not be a candidate for re-election, but the position may be forced upon him for a third term. Messre Scowcroft and Wattis have informed their friends that they will not accept the office even if elected, and the name of Mr. Bigelow, who is popular with a large following of members, was mentioned only a few days ago. It is anticipated that the contest will center on Judge Heywood and Mr. Bigelow.

Secretary I. L. Reynolds of the Weber club and Secretary J. D. Larson of the publicity bureau probably will be reappointed, the latter having a tentative agreement to that effect. The annual reports of the two secretaries will be presented to the members.

Special to The Tribune OGDEN, Jan. 11.—That communion of society is absolutely essential to human life in that it orings strength and happiness was the contention made by the Rev. John Edward Carver, paster of the Rirst Presbyterian church, in a communion day sermon this morning. In part he said:

Hew of us could readily select the sirst Presbyterian church, in a communion ay sermon this morning. In part he sid:

Few of us could readily select the one incident in our lives we would most desire others to remember, but not so the Christ. Not His wonds of sweetness or wisdom, not his wondrous miracles, not the matchless beauty of his character, a character so tender and attractive that it has become the joy of all contemplation, but His death for us. This death that could manifest remission of sin and the communion that told of it were to be the center of the world's memory. He desired the communion for their mutual strength, as they drew nigh to worship him. Society is like a heap of embers, which, when separated, soon languish and expire, but, placed together, glow with ruddy heat, emblem of the strength, happiness and security of union.

To every man life means a loss when left to himself. There is so steady a drain of purpose, courage and hope, of belief in the worth and work of his and others lives that all need times of mutual invigoration. The conscience and faith or love that is not renewed loses its fervor. Religion and worship are times of revival of the best as well as impetus of the new. This is the worldly argument for maintaining worship. David meant this when he said: "He restoreth my soul." Jesus meant it when he said: "I am the bread of life." It is the power of communion with God and Christ to inspire and quicken anew for self and service.

CONTEST OVER SITE.

CONTEST OVER SITE.

Location of Proposed State Fish Hatchery is Still in Doubt. to The Tribune.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Jan. II.—That the competition for the state fish hatchery which the federal government proposes to establish in Utah has narrowed down to a choice of site in Utah or Weber countles is the information received by the Ogden publicity bureau officials. R. S. Johnson, assistant chief of the federal bureau of sith hatcheries, who made the inspection of sites in Utah, has been in Washington, D. C. for the past several weeks and the definite selection of a site is expected to be made by January 15.

Because of the fact that the absence of a railroad worked a disadvantage in Mr. Johnson's mind to the proposed Ogden valley site. Secretary J. D. Larson, of the publicity organization, secured assurances from the officials of the Ogden Eapid Transit company that the Huntsville extension would be completed early in the summer and wired the officials of the national bureau to that effect. Conditions other than railroad facilities are said to be in favor of the Weber county site over that in Utah county.

PROLONGING LIFE IN BRIGHT'S DISEASE

It is hard for physicians who have had nothing but failure in chronic Bright's Disease to believe that there is such a thing as recovery and many honestly feel that patients reporting recoveries under Fulton's Renal Compound are but temporarily benefited.
